Community Outreach

During May 2022, information on the Agency's Traditional and Fair Elections Programs was discussed at the following locations/events:

- May 18th – MLK Library (Ward 2)
- May 23rd – ANC4B

2022 Election Cycle Debates

The Office of Campaign Finance hosted the Debates on May 16th, 17th, and 19th 2022 in the contested races for the Offices of the Mayor, Attorney General , and At-Large Member of the Council. These Offices are scheduled for election during the June 21st , 2022 Primary Election in the District of Columbia. All Candidates certified to participate in the Fair Elections Program (FEP) who are in contested city-wide elections were required under the Fair Elections Act (the "Act") to participate in the Debates. Candidates registered for these Offices in the Traditional Campaign Finance Program (Traditional Program) who qualified for ballot access were invited to participate.

The Debate for the Office of Chairman of the Council was waived. Where there is no other FEP participating candidate or willing non-participating candidate, the mandatory debate requirement may be waived under the Act. There was only one (1) certified FEP Candidate in this city-wide contest, and the registered Candidate in the Traditional Program was unavailable to participate due to scheduling conflicts.

The Debates were moderated by the Washington Post Reporters Michael Brice-Sadler and Julie Zauzmer Weil. The Debates were held virtually and streamed online at www.dcdebates.com, where recordings of the Debates will remain online for viewing through the remainder of the Calendar Year.
